

Lake Joe is part of Muskoka's iconic "Big Three" alongside Lake Rosseau and Lake Muskoka. It connects directly to Lake Rosseau via the Port Sandfield swing bridge and the Joseph River, granting boaters access to over 500 km of navigable waterways.

The deep, clean waters make it a premier destination for fishing (lake trout, smallmouth bass, pike), wake surfing, and water-skiing.