

Lake Vernon is a well-established and highly desirable lake located at the southern gateway to Huntsville, in the heart of Muskoka, Ontario. As part of the Huntsville chain of lakes, Lake Vernon offers excellent boating, fishing, and four-season recreation, while providing direct access to town amenities. Its combination of size, navigability, and convenience has made it a long-standing favourite for both seasonal and year-round cottage owners.

